1-12-21, 7:30pm, Online Zoom, Creative Ways of Turning A Concrete Patio Into A Food Forest with Farmer Ken Sparks

Description = The Orange County Organic Gardening Club hosts Ken Sparks, who turned a concrete patio in East L.A. into an edible garden with fruit trees. Ken began gardening with his late grandmother and developed his green thumb very early in life. When COVID-19 hit, Ken decided to become Farmer Ken, open a business helping communities develop gardens and develop his own food forest in East LA. He has been featured on ABC7 and in the Los Angeles Times.

Cost = Free
