

Garden Event

1-23-23 through 1-29-23, 10:30am-4pm, Camellia Week at Sherman Gardens, Corona Del Mar

Description = Sherman Library & Gardens will be celebrating their Camellia Collection with a week of events and activities. Sherman Gardens features over 120 different varieties of camellia. This winter-blooming plant is at its best at the end of January, and the gardens will be blooming with a vast variety of camellia flowers. Camellia Week includes talks, classes and displays for everyone to enjoy. Drop in to see our beautiful Camellia Bloom Table; attend a talk by nationally renowned camellia grower Tom Nuccio from Nuccio's Nurseries; learn how to create your own bonsai using dwarf camellia or discover how to use camellia flowers to create floral arrangements for the home.

Cost = Free with $5 garden admission. Garden admission is $5. and free for Members.

Location = Sherman Library & Gardens, 2647 E. Coast Hwy, Corona del Mar 92625

For More Information = Beverly Morgan, beverly@slgardens.org, 949-673-2261, www.thesherman.org