- COVID-19: As California continues its recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, CNPS remains committed to keeping our communities safe in accordance with the latest federal, state and local health guidelines.

PROGRAMMING TO NOURISH EVERYONE

The 2022 CNPS Conference will offer opportunities to connect, learn and share around California's native plants—and the diverse communities that depend on them. Presenters will include conservationists, scientists, horticulturalists, educators, researchers, outdoor enthusiasts, culture keepers and more. Together, we'll explore how a deeper understanding of shared work today will lead to a better tomorrow for California's native plants, through programming centered on four specific tracks:
