

11-20-20 7:30pm, Los Angeles International Fern Society General Meeting

Description = This month we shall be continuing to visit our members gardens during our Zoom meeting. Everyone has loved these visitations and it is such good timing for people to show off their hard work. Covid could never stop people in the garden. Fact is it has given some of us so much extra time to be in our favorite realm of the world...amongst our plants. Join people from all over the world at the LAIFS meeting via Zoom. Sorry, you have to provide your own refreshments

Cost = Free

To sign in = Just go to www.Meetup.com under Los Angeles International Fern Society for directions.
