

Garden Event

3-23-23, 7:30pm, In-Person and Zoom, The Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy with Cris Sarabia, Pasadena 91107

Description = Cris Sarabia will talk about the Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy's (PVPLC) work in land acquisition and conservation, habitat restoration, rare plants, endangered species, the PVPLC native plant nursery, and much more. The Palos Verdes Peninsula is a unique and beautiful place that people can visit and get more involved in with various volunteer opportunities. Cris Sarabia is the conservation director of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy. He is also a dedicated and active member of many local conservation organizations in his home region of North Long Beach and South East LA., including the GreyWater Action Network, Pelacanus, and Puente Latino association, a grassroots, non-profit art, cultural, and ecological organization serving the North Long beach community since 2019. He served on the board of the statewide California Native Plant Society including two years as board president and has been on the board of his local South Coast chapter for many years. 7:00pm Coffee & informal plant conversation; 7:30 Program

Cost = Free

Location = Eaton Canyon Nature Center, 1750 N Altadena Drive, Pasadena 91107

Zoom link to join = <https://cnps-org.zoom.us/j/82248610074?pwd=R1c2SGFvUjllMUUvSdWR1UmFxcTZmZz09>

Or by telephone = +1 720 707 2699 (Denver — long distance charges may apply)

Meeting ID: 822 4861 0074 Passcode 795450