

Garden Event

8-6-22, 10am-12noon, Zoom, Raised Bed Gardening with Farmscape with Matthew Geldin

Description = Has spending so much time at home ignited your excitement for vegetable gardening? Growing food in raised beds can be a fun and fruitful way to get the most out of your backyard garden. Join us for a virtual workshop that will cover how to site your garden, choose soil mixes, irrigation setups, garden planning techniques, crop suggestions and seasonal growing tips. This class is designed for novice gardeners, but will include plenty of tips for seasoned pros.

Cost = $20 members, $25 non-members
