9-21-24, 9-11 am, Seed Saving Workshop and Seed ID Challenge, Ishihara Park Learning Garden, Santa Monica 90404

Description = Join our monthly garden party and hear from Master Gardeners about the joy of saving seeds. Flowers and vegetables alike, if you want to regrow those calendulas or start one of those delicious Black Krim Tomatoes next season, we'll discuss dry and wet seed harvesting, drying and storage tips. Kids and adults alike can participate in our Seed ID Challenge, and see who among your group is the seed whisperer. Ishihara Park Learning Garden hosts a Community Event the third Saturday of each month. It's an opportunity to pick up some gardening tips, get your hands dirty and have a cup of coffee or garden pancakes with some good people.
