

Garden Event

First Thursday of each month, 7pm, Los Angeles Cactus and Succulent Society, Reseda 91335

Description = The Los Angeles Cactus and Succulent Society's nearly 200 members come from throughout the southland and share a passion for cacti and succulents. Throughout the history of LACSS, many of the most prominent researchers, authors, and collectors of the succulent world have been leaders and members of our society. LACSS meets monthly to enjoy stimulating presentations, hands-on workshops, plant sales, mini-shows, raffles, trading, and other activities. In addition, LACSS offers field trips to member gardens, nurseries, and private collections. We serve the greater community by offering free educational activities, and presenting an exciting annual festival in April or June, and a Fall Sale.

Cost = Free, open to the public; $25 annual membership

Location = ONEgeneration Senior Enrichment Center, 18255 Victory Blvd., Reseda 91335
